The Directors of Baru Resources Limited ('Baru', 'BAC' or 'the Company') are pleased to announce that Mr Ian Lovett has been appointed as a non-executive director of the Company.

Since leaving the University of Newcastle in 1975 with a degree in Commerce, Ian has been involved in the reporting, promoting and marketing of junior resource stocks.

From 1975 through to 2005 he worked as a financial journalist with a long list of titles including the Sydney Morning Herald, the Financial Times, The Australian, The South China Morning Post and the Daily Telegraph. Ian's work was also syndicated across News Limited publications. In addition, he provided most of the material for Hot Line, a telephone share tipping service which specialised in junior miners in the 80s and 90s.

In 2005 he left News Ltd and worked in a free lance capacity, assisting junior miners to raise capital, list assets and help them to promote their projects to the wider investment community. Ian's extensive journalist, stockbroking and investment banking contacts proved invaluable in this role and some of his clients included Central West, Morning Star Gold, Silver Mines, Bowen Energy, Norton Gold, and many more.
